Elba city clerk says Dollar General working to construct new building in Elba

During the Elba City Council meeting held Monday evening, March 25, Elba City Clerk Sally Bane noted a new Dollar General store is in the works for the city.

"The property at 839 Troy Highway [the old Clark Furniture property] has been purchased," Bane said. "Soon, you will start to see the demolition of the current structures to prep the site for the new construction for Dollar General."

Bane said the company had submitted all the appropriate paperwork to be able to build on the site.

The Elba Water and Electric Board also met Monday evening, and Bane said during that meeting that Dollar General would require three-phase electrical service for the new building to be constructed.

"In the next few months, you will see the electric materials and supplies increase as that is very expensive to put in; however, those costs will be quickly realized back once they are operational," Bane said to W&E board members.

Also, during the city council meeting, the city clerk said she had been contacted by a citizen with a great idea for council members to consider.

"In a couple of other cities, she and her daughter have seen where the city provided a couple of parking spaces that had video surveillance for those who buy/sale/trade items through social media to have a safe place to exchange said goods in a public area," Bane said.

The clerk provided council members with a proposal to place a sign at two parking spots in the rear parking area of Elba City Hall designating those spots as the safe area for buy/sale/trade exchanges. These parking spots are covered by security cameras at city hall.

"We are recommending those two spaces be used," Bane said. "This would only cost the city the amount of placing two signs but give citizens a piece of mind when meeting someone to sale or purchase something from the internet."

Council members agreed this would be a good thing to do to offer an extra safety measure to citizens that wanted to buy or sale goods from the internet. The only other suggestion council members added was to look at adding additional lighting to the area to help improve the safety even more for those meeting at the design-nated spots after dark.

Following a short discussion, council members voted unanimously to move forward with making this proposal a reality in provided a safe area for buy/sale/trade exchanges in Elba.

After receiving a recommendation from the Elba Zoning Board to not allow a site a 0 Hickman Avenue to be rezoned from R-2 to B-2, the council was told the next appropriate step in that matter would be to schedule a public hearing of its own on the matter. The zoning board can only make recommendations to the council on such matters.

Therefore, the council set Monday, April 8, at 5:15 p.m. to hold a public hearing on the rezoning request following recommendation

Elba Public Library planning Thursday, March 28, book signing for Elba native

Elba native Lesley Ham Sunas said local residents will find many recognizable places in her new book, "The Beautiful Life of Laura Humphrey," which was published last month by Page Publishing.

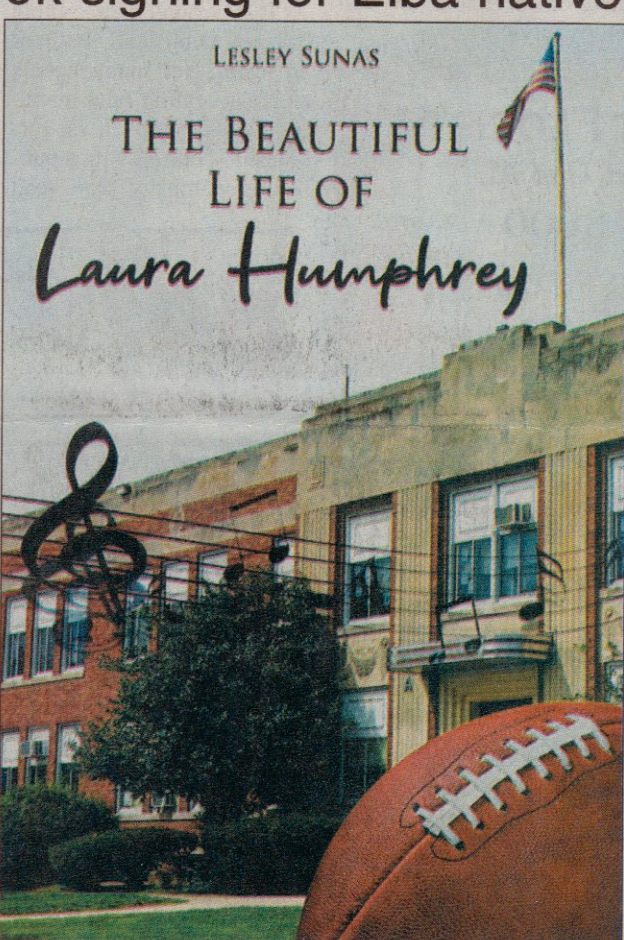

Sunas will sign books at the Elba Public Library beginning at 4 p.m. this Thursday, March 28.

The book, the author's first, shares the story of Laura Humphrey, who teaches music at "Coffee County High School." Laura is devoted to her church, family and friends, but doubts her own self-worth.

When Laura receives a potentially life-threatening diagnosis and is struggling with the aftermath of treatment, some of her students reach out to make sure she knows how much she has meant to them. The novel addresses Laura's interactions with each student and their particular struggles, including abuse, parental abandonment, and mental illness.

Sunas, who earned her undergraduate degree at Alabama and a Master's in psychology at the University of West Florida, might have had unique insight into the issues with which her protagonist helped her students, as she worked in behavioral medicine and clinical research. She said she always liked to read, but never enjoyed writing.

"That started changing the last 10 years or so when I started having fun with small creative writing projects here and there," she said.

She and her husband, Dean, have been married almost 28 years and live in Ponte Vedra, Fla. Their son Alex, 24, graduated from Auburn's College of Architecture, Design and Construction last May and is working in Birmingham. Their daughter, Sarah, 22, is a senior communications major at the University of Alabama. And their third child, Luke, is a junior in high school.

Sunas said she has had Laura's story in mind for 15 years, but between work

Elba BOE accepts two teacher resignations

The Elba City School Board met Tuesday evening, March 19, for the regular monthly meeting during which the resignations of two teachers were accepted.

Superintendent Chris Moseley said Elba High School history teacher and coach Al Gilmore had turned in his resignation after recently accepting a head football coach position with Geneva County High School.

"I think we all have enjoyed Coach Gilmore and what he has done over the past seven years while here," Moseley said. "I am very proud for him and his family in what they will be able to do. I have known that being a head coach is one of his goals in life, and he has taken a head coach job at Geneva County."

The superintendent said Gilmore would continue teaching at Elba until a replacement could be secured for his classroom for the remainder of this school year. Once a replacement in place to finish out the year, he said Gilmore would be allowed to move on to Geneva County to get things rolling with his new position there.

Superintendent Moseley said he had been working with the superintendent of that school system to work all the details out to help both schools.

Board members approved Gilmore's resignation.

The second resignation to be considered was that of Mandy Jefcoat, an Elba Elementary School teacher.

The superintendent said she found out in December that she had been accepted for a position at LBW Community College, but she is going to finish teaching this school year at Elba before her resignation becomes effective. She said she went ahead and submitted the resignation now so the job could be posted to allow EES principal Kenya Martin to begin the search someone to fill the position next school year.

Board members approved Jefcoat's resignation, effec-

Enterprise man convicted for manslaughter

On Friday, March 22, a jury in the Enterprise Division of Coffee County convicted Emmanuel Key of the lesser included offense to murder of manslaughter for the killing of Stevie Franklin on December 22, 2019.

The jury's verdict came at the end of three full days of trial before Circuit Judge Shannon Clark.

12th Judicial Circuit District Attorney James Tarbox said testimony and evidence presented showed that Defendant Key was present at the Daleville Lounge on the night in question. As the night continued, security guards, including Stevie Franklin, attempted to have a group of individuals removed from the establishment.

"During these efforts, a fight broke out and Defendant Key produced a .380 ACP handgun and shot Franklin at close range," Tarbox said. "Key fled the scene and Franklin succumbed to the wound inflicted. Key was captured approximately three weeks later."

The State was represented by Assistant District Attorney Mary Katherine Head, with trial assistance provided by Assistant District Attorney Kylie Foor. This case was difficult to try due to the nature of the evidence, and as Ms. Head stated during closing arguments, there were several "puzzle pieces" the jury had to piece together in order to show the full picture of what happened on December 22, 2019.

"Our office is grateful to the jurors for their service and grateful they saw the true picture of what happened during this tragic event," Tarbox said. "Key senselessly took the life of Stevie Franklin."

Sentencing has been scheduled for a later date. Key is a multi-time convicted felon and the State will seek significant punishment for these actions for which he has now been adjudged guilty.

Tarbox added, "Our office appreciates the work of the Enterprise Police Department, Enterprise Fire Department, Enterprise Rescue, the Coffee County Coroner's Office, the Alabama Department of Forensic Sciences, and the US Marshall's Fugitive Recovery Task Force for their dedication and work in this matter. I appreciate the work and diligence of Assistant District Attorney Head which led to this step of justice being served for Stevie Franklin's family.

and three children, didn't have time to "write it down properly." She tried once about a dozen years ago, and basically ended up with a rough outline.

A year ago, she decided to try writing it again.

"It felt like it all came together – the timing was right," she said. "I had more time to work on it, the story flowed, and every day I looked forward to sitting at my computer and getting to work."

Getting her work published required more work.

"It is virtually impossible (to get published) without an agent, yet many agents aren't accepting new manuscripts," she said. "I was fortunate to connect with a publishing company who read it and wanted to move forward. The company handles editing, cover design, and marketing while still working closely with the author."

The result, "The Beautiful Life of Laura Humphrey," was released on February 24, 2024. It is available on Amazon and Barnes and Noble, and Sunas will have copies for sale this week at the Elba Public Library.

Sunas is the daughter of Fred and Ella Kate Ham, and a 1986 graduate of Elba High School. The mother of three said she has a few children's books she's written through the years, and she hopes to have those ready to publish within a year. Then she hopes to tackle a mystery set on the Outer Banks of North Carolina.

Can I request a DNA sample from someone who has died?

There are a number of reasons that someone might wish to have a DNA sample taken from a deceased loved one. In some cases, they may simply wish to know more about their own heritage. Or they may be interested in learning about possible genetic diseases, particularly if their loved one passed away unexpectedly.

If you are interested in getting a DNA sample from a loved one who has died, it is possible to do so. Depending on where you lived and how the person died, the process to get the DNA sample may differ, so it is important to research any legal issues surrounding this in your state.

If a coroner examined the deceased it's likely that they will keep a sample of the deceased's DNA, typically as a blood spot sample. However, these samples are often destroyed after a certain amount of time has gone, so it's important to request the sample as soon as possible.

These days, there are a number of companies that specialize in running DNA samples from someone who is no longer living. The process to get a DNA sample will likely require extra paperwork, and samples must be high quality enough for the DNA to be able to be extracted. It is important to talk to your funeral director to let them know your wishes so they can work with you to find the best way to obtain a DNA sample.

If your loved one was cremated, there is less of a chance that there will be enough genetic material remaining to get a viable DNA sample. This is because the high temperatures destroy human remains and leave little behind but ashes. However, as science advances there is some chance that it may be possible to obtain DNA results from cremated remains.

The main thing to know about obtaining DNA samples from someone who has died is that it is possible, but doesn't always work. You should also know that typically only family members or next-of-kin can request these samples. If you do wish to obtain a sample, time is of the essence, so make sure to bring this up with your funeral director as soon as possible.

While spring break may mean a trip to the beach and a chance to lay out in the sun and splash around in the waters of the gulf to many, for this ole Granddaddy it means a chance to sleep in and enjoy a week away from work. As I get older and continue to work I have to disagree with those that say there aren't enough hours in the day, because it seems to me there are more than enough hours in the day, there just aren't enough hours at night!

For what it is worth....

*** The Elba Tigers saw their playoff hopes come to an abrupt end last week with a series loss to Kinston that dropped their area series slate to 0-2 with only two series left. Elba won the first game in the three-game set and appeared ready to take a giant step toward the playoffs, but lost two straight on the road and now are left to just play out the schedule and try to improve on their record. I know last week's series loss hurt, but I still believe the Tigers always play to win and also believe they will win more than share of games and even their area record. Don't let their record fool'ya, this team ain't that bad.

*** The Elba Lady Tigers carried a 3-0 record into spring break after a solid 15-4 win over Pike County. The Lady Tigers trailed for the first time this season early and had their fans nervous, but once their bats started hitting they simply ran away with the unexpected lopsided win over a very good opponent. Elba will play almost daily once they come back from spring break and will have to play their best to win against what appears to be a very rugged schedule. However, there is something special about this group of girls and I think they have a chance to make a lot of noise in the weeks to come.

*** The area high school action was just as busy as ever last week and with both baseball and softball nearing the midway point of the season, it is becoming clear what fans can look out for in the weeks to come. On the baseball field, New Brockton has seemed to hit a lull and managed only one one-run win in three games that included a 16-1 loss, and maybe the spring break will pump new life into a team that appeared to be built for the post-season. Brantley has started to pile up the wins and after a slow start may be just as good as expected, while Zion Chapel has a solid team that can beat anyone on its schedule on any given day, and Kinston has wrapped up a playoff berth and should start to add to its win total almost every afternoon. Over on the softball field, Zion Chapel continues to grab the headlines as the Lady Rebels pile up the wins and set their sights on post-season play, while Brantley's young squad gain experience every time they hit the field and re only getting better and better; Kinston may be a team that many have overlooked, but is a team loaded with talent and experience that has started to win on a daily basis; and, New Brockton seems to have settled in after a slow start and should be ready to go by the time the playoffs begin. I don't care if you have a favorite team or not, some of the best high school sports teams in the state are right here in the wiregrass and if you enjoy sports you owe it to yourself to head out and watch a couple of games.

*** The SEC may be the measuring stick when it comes to college football, but the conference took a hit last week on the basketball court when only three of their eight teams selected for the NCAA Tournament managed to make it out of the first round. I didn't think the conference really deserved to have eight teams in the dance and honestly wasn't surprised when South Carolina, Mississippi State and even Florida were knocked out, but as an old conference fan I was hoping Kentucky would make a run, and since I think Auburn has the best coach in the conference was even pulling for the Tigers. My bracket has long since been throw in the trash, but I don't believe Alabama or Texas A & M are legitimate threats, and for some reason just can't pull for Tennessee. So, I guess it is almost time to sit back and just watch.

*** In closing.... It looks like the college football playoffs will continue for at least the next eight years since ESPN and the playoff organization agreed last week to a new six-year, $7.8 billion contract that means the sports network will remain the sole provider of playoff games through the 2031-2032 season. ESPN has owned the rights to the post-season event since back in 2015 and gets the luxury of the playoff expansion for the next two seasons, and who knows what for the rest of the contract. The rich just get richer.

Rip Pike County 15-4

Lady Tigers make it three wins in-a-row

The Elba Lady Tigers spotted Pike County an early 2-0 lead and then came roaring back to post an impressive 15-4 homefield win.

Elba's Mary Brooklyn O'Neal ripped a two-run double in the bottom of the first inning to pull the Lady Tigers even at 2-2, and while Pike County went back on top 3-2 in the top of the second, Elba again answered and this time plated four runs to take a 6-3 lead.

Alyric Whitfield and Taylor Day both reached on bunt singles to spark the early rally, while Danielle Tidwell had a two-run single and Ana Caldwell blasted an rbi double as the Lady Tigers rallied to regain the lead.

A leadoff walk to Ayrika Caldwell, a bunt single by Alyric Whitfield and a Pike County error led to three more Elba runs in the bottom of the third to push the lead to 9-3, and the Lady Tigers lead grew to 10-3 in the fourth when Danielle Tidwell doubled and later scored on an error.

Pike County added a lone run in the top of the fifth, but Elba's bats were wild awake as the Lady Tigers plated five runs in their half of the inning to close out the win. A leadoff double by Haley Tucker ignited the fifth inning fireworks, while Taylor Day and Kaleigh Russell both reached on infield hits and Danielle Tidwell, Mary Brooklyn O'Neal and Ayrika Caldwell all delivered key hits as the Lady Tigers posted the big win.

Danielle Tidwell had 3 hits, scored 4 runs and had 2 rbi's to lead Elba at the plate, while Mary Brooklyn O'Neal added 2 hits, scored 1 run and had 4 rbi's; Kaleigh Russell added 2 hits, scored 3 runs and had 1 rbi; Ayrika Caldwell added 2 hits, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's; Alyric Whitfield added 2 hits and scored 2 runs; and, Haley Tucker added 1 hit and scored 2 runs.

Ayrika Caldwell pitched five innings and allowed two earned runs on three hits, while striking out 15.

Lady Tiger Haley Tucker ripped a pinch-hit double to ignite a late outburst in last week's 15-4 win over Pike County.

Elba Tigers drop key area series to Kinston

The Elba Tigers enjoyed an homefield advantage in a 12-3 game one area win over Kinston, but found the going a little tougher on the road as they dropped a twin-bill 6-5 and 11-4 to drop the series.

Following is a recap of all three games:

Elba 12 Kinston 3 – The Elba Tigers jumped ahead 6-0 in the second inning and never looked back in an impressive 12-3 area win over the Kinston Bulldogs.

A one-out single by Jay Wilson sparked a five-run first inning for the Tigers, while Kaleb Mitchell added an rbi double and Brady Johnson delivered an rbi single as Elba plated two runs after a Kinston error kept the inning alive.

Elba combined three walks and a single to up its lead to 6-0 in the second, but Kinston showed signs of life in the top of the third and cut the lead to 6-2, sparked by a single by Cade Jones.

Collin Arnold scored on a sacrifice fly by Ty Sieving in the bottom of the frame to up Elba's lead back up to 7-2, and used a Bulldog bobble in the fourth to open up an 8-2 advantage.

The Bulldogs took advantage of Elba errors to plate one run in the fifth. However, the Tigers scored four runs in the sixth behind the hitting of Jay Wilson and Brayden Johnson to take command and easily held on to claim the big 12-3 area win.

Jay Wilson had 2 hits, scored 2 runs and had 1 rbi to lead Elba at the plate, while Collin Arnold added 2 hits and scored 2 runs; Kaleb Mitchell added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 3 rbi's; Brady Johnson added 1 hit, scored 2 runs and had 2 rbi's; Ty Sieving added 1 hit, scored 2 runs and had 1 rbi; and, Brayden Johnson added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's.

Collin Arnold, Jay Wilson and Cameron Gray combined to pitch seven innings and allowed no earned runs on two hits, with six strikeouts.

Drew Branch had 1 hit and 1 rbi to lead Kinston, while Cade Jones added 1 hit, and CJ Lunsford, Colby Tew and Marcus Free all scored 1 run. Lunsford, Jones, Judd Green and Easton Parker combined to pitch six innings and allowed six earned runs on eight hits, while striking out 10.

Kinston 6 Elba 5 – The Elba Tigers watched a 5-3 fifth inning lead vanish in a 6-5 loss to the Kinston Bulldogs.

Cameron Gray and Jay Wilson both drew walks to open the game and scored on a two-run double by Kaleb Mitchell, and when Mitchell raced home on an rbi single by Brayden Johnson the Tigers were on top 3-0 early.

Elba left the bases loaded in the second and stranded one runner on base in the third as it failed to add to its lead, but Kinston took advantage of two errors and an rbi single by Cade Jones with two outs to pull within 3-1 in the bottom of the third.

The Tigers stranded two more runners on base in the fourth. However, Kinston made the most of its scoring chances in the bottom of the frame and pulled even at 3-3 on a two-run single by Marcus Free.

Brayden Johnson scored after being hit by a pitch in the top of the fifth and Easton McKelvy scored on a balk as the Tigers regained the lead at 5-3, only to see Kinston pull within 5-4 in the bottom of the inning when CJ Lunsford scored on a wild pitch with two outs.

The Tigers had another chance to take command in their half of the seventh, but saw Brady Johnson thrown out at the plate, and again left the bases loaded and carried the slim one-run lead into the bottom of the inning.

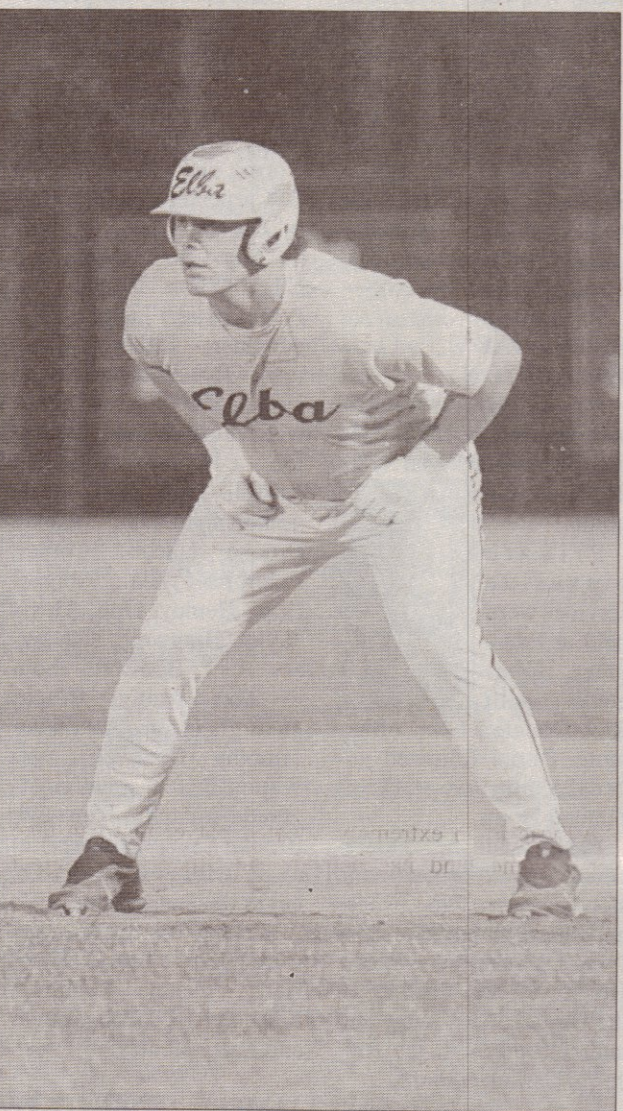

Jon Simmons drew a walk in the Bulldogs final at-bat, went to third on a single by CJ Lunsford and scored on a passed ball to pull Kinston even at 5-5, and Drew Branch drew a one-out walk and also scored on a passed ball as the Bulldogs kept the series alive with the 6-5 win.

Kaleb Mitchell had 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's to lead Elba, while Brayden Johnson added 1 hit and 1 rbi, and Collin Arnold added 1 hit. Ty Sieving pitched six innings and allowed three earned runs on two hits, with seven strikeouts, while Cameron Gray was tagged with the loss as he pitched one-third inning and allowed one earned run on one hit, two walks and a hit batter.

Cade Jones had 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi to lead Kinston, while Marcus Free added 1 hit and 2 rbi's, CJ Lunsford added 1 hit and scored 1 run, and Jon Simmons scored 2 runs. Jones and Branch combined to pitch seven innings and allowed five earned runs on three hits, with 12 strikeouts.

Kinston 11 Elba 4 – The Elba Tigers watched Kinston plate five runs in both the third and sixth innings in an 11-4 area loss to the Bulldogs.

walked and came around to score on a fielder's choice to put the Bulldogs up 1-0. The Tigers bounced back and scored two runs in the third on an rbi double by Ty Sieving and a fielder's choice to go ahead 2-1. However, Kinston answered with five runs in its half of the frame, sparked by a two-run single by Cade Jones and a two-run homer by Brodie Walker, to regain the lead at 6-2.

Elba left the bases loaded again in the fourth, but plated one run in the sixth after back to back doubles by Cameron Gray and Jay Wilson to pull within 6-3. The Tigers hopes of a late rally didn't last for long; however, as the Bulldogs added five runs in their half of the inning to stretch their lead to 11-3, with key hits being a two-run single by Cade Jones and an rbi single by Marcus Free.

Jaden Baker drew a walk in the seventh and came around to score on a fielder's choice, but the rally fell far short as the Tigers dropped the game, and the series, with the 11-4 loss.

Cameron Gray had 2 hits to lead Elba, while Jay Wilson and Ty Sieving both had 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi, and Kaleb Mitchell scored 1 run. Powell Bane, Jay Wilson and Brady Johnson combined to pitch six innings and allowed seven earned runs on 12 hits and seven walks.

Cade Jones had 3 hits, scored 1 run and had 4 rbi's to lead Kinston, while Drew Branch also added 3 hits; Brodie Walker added 2 hits, scored 2 runs and had 2 rbi's; Marcus Free added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi; and, CJ Lunsford added 1 hit and scored 3 runs. CJ Lunsford and Judd Green combined to pitch seven innings and allowed four earned runs on five hits, while striking out nine.

Elba's Whitfield makes it back-to-back-to back as All-State prep basketball pick

The Alabama Sports Writers Association recently named its 2023-2024 'All-State' high school basketball selections, and for the third straight season Elba Lady Tiger A'Lyric Whitfield was named to the honored list in Class 1A.

"A'Lyric is an extremely talented player that can take over a game, and has helped lead this team to great accomplishments over the past couple of years," stated Coach Shaun Hammonds. "She is a hard worker, isn't afraid to go inside to score against bigger players and certainly isn't afraid to shoot from behind the three-point line. She has made me a better coach and I am so thankful that she has been a part of our teams over the past couple of years."

How Do We Respond?

The war in Vietnam was one of the more troublesome military ventures in American history. It was a proxy war: North Vietnam supported by communist China and the Soviet Union vs. South Vietnam backed by America and its allies. American involvement was significant by the mid-1960s, and the country became deeply divided over the war. Protests sprang up all over the country. Many believe the government had lied to them about the reason for the war, the need to escalate it, the number of casualties, and the chance for victory. The military draft became increasingly unpopular, and many thousands were accused of draft dodging. Providentially for Israel, Jephthah was willing to serve! (Apparently Israel had men willing to fight as soldiers, but no one qualified to lead them.)

Most of us never have had to face the danger of armed warfare, but we are called to demonstrate spiritual courage now, as our country struggles through another wrenching time of cultural decline. This applies to both spiritual leaders and "food soldiers." When the challenge comes to engage in spiritual battle, do you respond, "Here am I; send me." (Isaiah 6:8). — C.R.B.

Elba senior takes third place in FFA tractor-driving competition

by Gracie Grantham
Earlier this month, the FFA (Future Farmers of America) organization held the regional 2024 tractor driving competition in New Brockton, Ala.

The purpose of the competition was to emphasize the needed education in agriculture and to highlight safe tractor operation. Grady Grantham, a senior from Elba High School, participated in the event and won third place.

When asked what was required of contestants in the tractor driving contest, Grady replied, "I had to take a test on tractor safety and general operation. We also had to back a trailer into a shed and down a 40-foot alleyway. We then had to complete an obstacle course."

Grady prepared for the event by practicing on an obstacle course he built himself. He's driven a tractor for a number of years

Grady said winners of the contest are determined on how well the tractor is driven, performance through the obstacle course, and results from the safety and general operation test.

When asked if he felt he could have done better in the contest, Grady responded, "I could've done better. I feel fine about 3rd place, though."

A third-place win is a great accomplishment. Grady represented Elba High School well at this regional event.

Elba High School is proud of Grady Grantham. After graduation this May, he plans to pursue a career in diesel engine repair.

Winning essay advances Elba student to Washington, DC

by Angela Sanders

Juniors from Elba High School recently participated in the PowerSouth essay contest.

In February, ten finalists were selected from Elba to advance to the first round of the contest. The essay panel from PowerSouth then chose five finalists to participate in the regional competition where finalists participated in an interview and took a written test about energy cooperatives.

After scores were tabulated from the essay, interview, and test, the winner and runner-up were announced. Staci Griffin won first place and Aubrey Wisecup was selected as runner-up for Elba High School. Both students will be attending the State Youth Tour in Montgomery in March.

The winner, Staci Griffin, will have the honor of representing Elba at the Washington Youth Tour in Washington, D.C. this summer in June.

Jane Moseley, media specialist, and Angela Sanders, English teacher, had the privilege of chaperoning and helping these students prepare for this academic event. All essay finalists did a wonderful job representing Elba through excellent writing and positive leadership skills.

Elba High students achieve quadratic mastery

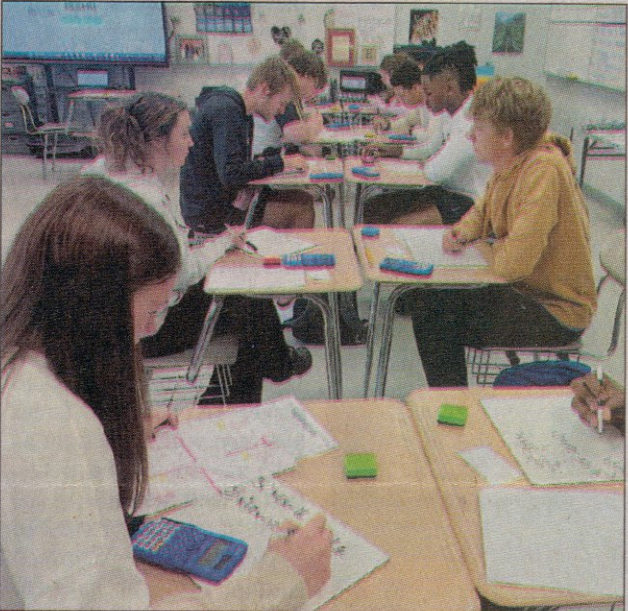

by Angela Sanders

Juniors in Julie Eagle's class recently had an opportunity to work together to solve challenging quadratic equations.

Eagle, math teacher, works regularly with Debbie Lawrence, 6-12th grades math specialist from Troy University's AMSTI program. AMSTI is Alabama's Math, Science and Technology Initiative.

The Alabama Department of Education created a program to help improve Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) teaching and learning statewide. Ms. Eagle challenges her students and provides opportunities to keep her students very active in their learning. She is always finding fun and engaging ways to help students with challenging coursework and utilizes all the opportunities the AMSTI program can provide to her students.

Students work hard and learn not only various math silks but also how to work together through positive collaboration.

Students in Julie Eagle's high school math class work to solve challenging quadratic equations.

Ms. Eagle is definitely preparing and equipping her students for higher learning after graduating from Elba. Bright futures are ahead for these students!

Elba High Teacher Spotlight

by Caleigh Smith

A big welcome to Julie Eagle, math teacher at Elba High School. Read as we take a look in on her teaching and goals for Elba!

Eagle teaches 9th through 12th grade advanced and general classes. She started teaching at Elba this school year.

Eagle's goals are to increase students' math proficiency and to improve students' ACT scores so Elba students can become more competitive with college scholarships and applications. She hopes to bring a dual enrollment aspect for our aspiring college students. Eagle chose to teach at Elba because of the smaller community and school district to give her a better opportunity to develop relationships with students and to help vertically align math programs to better meet the needs of Elba's population. She says her experience at Elba has Elba FCCLA (Family Career Community Leaders of America) students attended the State leadership conference in Montgomery earlier this month to compete in various STARS events.

All students competing brought home "gold" from the state event, and 10 advanced to nationals, which will be held this summer in Seattle, Washington.

been warm and welcoming from not only the students but also the parents of Elba.

Eagle is a great addition to our school. She brings all students together to learn and utilize new math skills.

Don't Forget: The Elba Clipper office will be closed Friday, March 29, in observance of Good Friday.

Also, Elba's Keelie Moseley was elected Vice President of Programs of FCCLA for Alabama. This is the second year in a row Elba High School has had one of its students elected to be a state officer for FCCLA.

During her stay in Montgomery, Keelie learned quality leadership skills to improve herself,

Elba High's Prom set for April 12th

by Nyasia McCullough

The excitement among juniors and seniors is starting to build as prom season approaches.

There is so much that goes into preparing for prom. Ladies have to find the perfect dress and then comes the shoes, hair, and nails. Guys have to find the smoothest tux and shoes to compliment their date.

The event itself comes with a lot of work from a whole team of hardworking people. Elba High School prom coordinator Madison Johnson, junior high English teacher, knows just how much goes into preparing for prom.

She is overseeing this year's event, "Friday Night Fever." This year's prom, scheduled for Friday, April 12, will have a disco theme that is sure to be fun and exciting. Johnson and her committee have planned a memorable night for Elba's junior and seniors which will feature photo backdrops, a 360-photo booth from Candid Events, a desert station provided by the faculty and staff of Elba her family, and her community.

Elba students that will be attending the National Leadership Conference this year are: Zalie McKevelly, Adalyn O'Neal, Keelie Moseley, Jay Wilson, Taylor Day, Easton McKevelly, Hillary Hudson, Mary B. O'Neal, Kayden Moseley, and Emerson Eldridge.

Schools, and tunes by DJ Heath. Gayle Renteria of Circle City Balloon Company, an Elba High School alumna, will be transforming the Elba cafeteria with beautiful decorations.

When asked what she is most excited about concerning prom, senior Tajah Robinson said, "Dancing and enjoying time with my friends."

Mrs. Johnson said, "The most important thing about prom is memories you will make. So, even if it is outside of your comfort zone, go and enjoy something that you will never get the opportunity to get back."

It will definitely be a memorable night that will live in the hearts and minds of many for years to come. There is sure to be dazzling couples and beautiful memories made that night. Be safe and enjoy the night, juniors and seniors!
